Class: IV Session 2024-2025

Dear Students,

As the warmth of the summer sun approaches, it's time to embrace the much-anticipated summer holidays! We hope this break provides you with ample opportunities to relax, recharge, and explore new horizons. However, before you embark on your well-deserved vacation, we have some exciting yet enriching homework assignments to keep your mind engaged during this period.

We believe that learning doesn't have to be confined to the four walls of a classroom, and the summer holidays offer the perfect canvas for expanding your knowledge and nurturing your creativity. These assignments are designed to provide you with a sense of adventure, intellectual stimulation, and personal growth.

Throughout the summer, our dedicated team of educators will be available to guide and support you whenever needed. Feel free to reach out to us for any clarification, inspiration, or assistance you may require on your homework assignments.

We eagerly await your return in the coming academic year to hear about your captivating experiences and witness the growth you have achieved. Make the most of this summer break, embrace the joy of learning, and let your enthusiasm shine through!

Wishing you a truly unforgettable and enriching summer holidays.
